Margery Callingwood [2] [coheir] b c1543; (aged 27, unm.) 1587; m a1593 Walter Bickles (Rector of Egginton, Derbys); [NOT m Thomas Sanders of Little Ireton, Derbys 1548-1627 QV]

An Inquisition Post Mortem was taken at Derby on August 1st, 1587, shewing, in a schedule attached, the facts as set forth above and on the 9th May following an agreement was made between the Lord Treasurer, Lord Burleigh and Thomas Sanders for a general livery on behalf of the co-heirs. Five years later John Stone and Helen, and Walter Bickles and Margery alienated their lands in Caldwell to Thomas Sanders for the sum of £20, and the latter thus became undisputed owner. This transaction shews that between 1587 and 1593 Margery Collingwood, the younger daughter of Ralph, had married Walter Bickles, clerk, and sufficiently disproves the assertion that she became the wife of Thomas Sanders. . We know that his wife's name was Alice, probably daughter of Henry Poone, although Hunter gives her name as Alice Jones. [JDANHS 1948 6]

It is said that Eleanor succeded to her father's Staffordshire estate and Margery to his Derbyshire estate. [JDANHS 1948 5]
